Quinton Utley's Tooth-Ache Drops.

FOR THE CURE OF THE TOOTHACHE

One of the Greatest Discoveries of the 19th Century!

FROM the numerous applications I have had for the above preparation, for the last few months, the uniform success which has attended its use, its salutary effects, its power to give immediate relief in the severest cases of Toothache, I have been induced to offer it to those who may be afflicted; with the utmost confidence in its virtue, and the full belief that it will subdue and give entire relief to the severest toothache without the slightest injury to the tooth. I have got (and can get,) numerous testimonials of its efficacy—some from distinguished gentlemen, and all from as reliable persons as are in the State, a publication of which I deem unnecessary at this time, as one of these Drops when tried in an aching tooth will be worth more to the manufacturer and the patient, than all the certificates from great men that could be procured.

The preparation is known only to myself. Every phial is carefully put up by my own hands in the City of Raleigh and labelled with directions for use, and may be found at IRA BECKWITH'S Store, on Fayetteville St. a few doors North of the Yarbrough House, and opposite Lawrence's Hotel, where it will be constantly kept for sale either by the wholesale or retail. Also for sale by the retail at Jone's Drug Store, Sycamore street, Petersburg, Va., and at Andrew Bett's Store, Wake County, N C. Retail price 50 cts per Bottle—liberal deduction made when taken by the quantity.

To all who may have the toothache—try it, and then it will need no puffing.

All orders from a distance promptly attended to by Mr. Beckwith or myself.

QUINTON UTLEY.

Mr. Clark moved to amend the second section of the bill, by striking out the words, or its equivalent.

Messrs. T. F. Jones and Caldwell opposed the amendment, Messrs. Clark and Bower advocated its adoption.

Pending the consideration of the amendment, the hour of 12 having arrived, the Senate proceeded to vote for a United States Senator.

For Mr. DOBBIN—Mr. Speaker, Barrow, Berry, Bower, Boyd, Brogden, Bunting, Caldwell, Cannaday, Clark, Collins, Cunningham, Drake, Hargrave, Herring, Hoke, Jones of Wake, Kerr, McDowell, McMillan, Murchison, Person, Shaw, Speight, Thomas, Ward, and Withers—27.

For Mr. H. W. MILLER—Messrs. Lane and Lillington—2.

Mr. Clark moved to amend 3d section, which did not prevail.

Mr. Clark moved to amend 4th section by striking out the provision for the establishment of a branch. Rejected.

Mr. Bower offered an amendment to the bill, which was rejected.

The question then recurring on the passage of the bill, its second reading, Mr. Clark called for the yeas and nays, which resulted, yeas 26, nays 20.

Mr. Boyd introduced a bill to incorporate the Tobacconists' Bank. Ordered to be printed.

Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Mr. Mills of Rutherford, introduced a bill, accompanied by memorials, to repeal an act of 1848-'49 entitled an act to repeal the act establishing the county of Polk. Referred to a select committee of five, consisting of Messrs. Phillips, S. P. Hill, J. A. Caldwell, Miller; and

Mr. Webb, of Rutherford, presented a petition from citizens of his county against the re-establishment of Polk county. Also a certificate from the Clerk of his county showing the vote of Polk county in 1848, 1850, and 1852. Also a statement from Wm. M. Shipp, deputy marshal, showing the census of said county of Polk; all of which were referred to the select committee of five above mentioned.

A message was received from the Senate concurring in the proposition to go into election of U. S. Senator at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Avery, from the committee on Internal Improvements, reported the engrossed bill concerning the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad, with amendments, and recommended its passage. Amendments adopted and bill passed its 2nd reading.

Mr. Long, of Randolph, on behalf of same committee, to which was referred the bill to authorize the raising of $30,000 by lottery to drain the lands of Goshen, in Duplin county, made a long and amusing report, recommending the bill to the favorable consideration of the House. The yeas and nays being taken the bill was rejected—yeas 41, nays 62.

Mr. Avery, from the same committee, reported favorably on the bill to incorporate the Euwharrie and Yadkin plankroad company.

Mr. Harris, of Davidson, offered an amendment inserting names of commissioners, which was adopted, and the bill passed its 2nd reading.

Also favorably on the bill to amend the act to incorporate the Greenville and Raleigh plankroad company, which was read and passed.

Mr. Turner, of Orange, introduced a bill to compensate owners of slaves who may be executed. [Provides for paying two-thirds the value.]

Also a bill to prevent the removal of slaves from the State by persons owning a life estate in such slaves. Referred to judiciary committee and ordered to be printed.

The Speaker announced that the hour of 12 having arrived, the House would proceed to vote for U. S. Senator, and appointed Messrs. Holeman and J. B. Bynum to superintend said election.

The vote was as follows in the two Houses, 162 votes being cast—necessary to a choice 82: Dobbin 74; Saunders 22; Shepard 24.

Scattering 42. No election.

On motion of Mr. Leach the resolutions concerning the public lands were taken up and made the special order of the day for Wednesday next.

The special order of the day, being the bill to incorporate the North Carolina and Atlantic railroad company, was taken up.

Mr. Saunders, of Wake, spoke at length in favor of the bill; and in the course of his remarks declared that he could see no difference between the whig and democratic platforms in regard to public lands, and expressed himself in favor of the distribution of the proceeds of the same.

Mr. McNeill, of Robeson, interrupting. If you were now in Congress, considering the present public debt, would you vote for a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands?

Mr S. I would.

Mr. McN. Would you recommend president Pierce to veto a bill providing for the distribution of the public lands among the States?

Mr. S. If I answer the question satisfactorily will the gentleman vote for me for U. S. Senator?

Mr. McN. Is the object of the gentleman's speech to procure his election to that office?

Mr. S. Does the gentleman impute such motives to me?

Mr. McN. Not at all.

Mr. Saunders then went on and concluded his remarks.

A message was received from the Governor transmitting the report of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, which was sent to the Senate with a proposition to print 3000 copies.

And the House adjourned.

REMARKS OF MR. GILMER,

OF GUILFORD,

Delivered in the Senate on the resignation of Chief Justice Ruffin:

Mr. Speaker, the resignation of so distinguished, faithful and useful an officer as Judge Ruffin, at this time, coming upon me suddenly and unexpectedly, fills me with emotion. The respect and regard which I have for him urge me to say something on the occasion, but sir, I am unable to command words that would fitly express my thoughts and feelings. I feel as I believe all North Carolina feels, a deep concern for this occurrence—the loss of the services of a Chief Justice, whose learning, ability and integrity have so justly secured the universal and unlimited confidence of his fellow-citizens.

For more than a quarter of a century has his name been identified with the administration of the law in North Carolina, and which law, from his extraordinary ability, in expounding the same, has gradually grown and increased, not only in the esteem of the legal profession but in the confidence of the people generally.

Although his leaving the bench may be likened to the withdrawal of the brighter lamp from our path, or the larger beacon light that secured a safe passage on our coast in the night time, a familiarity and thorough acquaintance with the instructions he has already given, must and will for years to come be a chart to guide and direct us in much safety, and for which we shall owe him a debt of lasting gratitude. The much that he has done, instead of creating a willingness that he should retire, has induced the greater anxiety that he should continue in the public service. Whilst, with others, I yield reluctantly to that on which he has determined, and which must produce such universal regret in the public mind, I must ever bear testimony to his learning, pure integrity and usefulness.

Judge Ruffin, whose name all North Carolinans, familiar with his character, have for years been ready and proud to pronounce, whenever [illegible] lawyers of other States are mentioned, had passed from the Bar to the Bench before I had personal knowledge of him. In all his private and social relations, his Christian character, and in his industry, care, and skill, in agricultural pursuits, he has ever presented an example worthy of all imitation.

Although cautious and moderate in the expression of his political opinions, and never the advocate of strange or violent measures, yet he has never been wanting in that self respect and independence necessary to form and express for himself his own views of political men and measures.

Favored with an excellent understanding, at the Bar, as I learn from his associates, few if any presented talents more proper to acquire and preserve. The success that resulted to him as a practitioner, from his industry and indomitable perseverance and research, should cheer and animate all who would aspire to be great and useful. He was generally courteous, respectful, and kind in argument; and if, on any oncasion, betrayed into any such excess of zeal as to provoke remark, it was from those who were excited by his superior intellectual powers, and who, for the moment, forgot that in the richest soil are to be found some weeds which even the diligent hand of the husbandman fails to remove. In the discharge of his duties as a Judge, he has given conclusive evidence of his purity and greatness. Divested of passion and never biased with compassion for the poor or favor to the rich, he patiently heard all parties to the end, and then, "indifferent as to what men might say or think," decided according to what he believed to be the established rule of justice. For the truth of all this the reports of the Supreme Court for the last twenty years and more will bear testimony, as long as North Carolina shall remain a free State. "In short, when we contemplate his various excellencies, we find ourselves at a loss, whether most to admire his deep and extensive learning and penetration as a lawyer," or "his industry, probity, firmness, wisdom, and patience as a Judge."

In conclusion, Mr. Speaker, permit me to repeat my regret that one so experienced and useful, in the full strength and vigor of his intellect, should, from any cause, leave the service of the State.

"WONDERS" OF THE DAY. Wonder if Parson Foss will appear in the next edition of the whig calendar of Saints.

Wonder if John Minor Botts will get out of bed at midnight any more, to puzzle his brains with trying to cypher out Scott's defeat.

Wonder if the whigs will celebrate the next anniversary of Chippewa.

Wonder if "the rich Irish brogue" will figure in Scott's next speech.

Wonder if the same general will not find a shorter route to Blue Lick on his next visit, than that by Sandusky and Albany.

Wonder which Seward thinks the more profitable piece of practice—being the volunteer advocate of the Jerry-rescuers or ditto of the soup ticket.

Wonder what "A Virginian from Mr. Faulkner's District" thinks of the effect of the drum and fife among the new voters.

Wonder what are the latest whig deductions from "the landside in Kanawha."

Wonder if the Southern friends of the platform will not send on a committee to congratulate Greeley on his salvation from salivation.

Wonder what terms those whig editors who hold that their party lost Virginia only by the most astonishing "apathy" will apply to the condition of their brethren in Kentucky, North Carolina, Maryland, &c. Their torpidity will have to be measured by that of the frogs which have lived millions of years in sandstone.

Wonder lastly, whether our whig friends are not satisfied that it is unsafe to handle such combustibles as Tar and Feathers when one is exposed to a fire in the rear. Winchester Virginian.

The election returns from the several States remind us of an anecdote of the late Duke of Wellington, as related by a gentleman of the highest respectability. It is well known that the Duke was very averse to speaking about his services at Waterloo—a feeling which had grown upon him, from the fact that he was very much bored with the subject by distinguished visitors who called upon him. On one occasion, of a sort of semi-public character, a distinguished foreigner was placed at the table next to the Duke. He kept continually speaking to him of Waterloo, very complimentary all the while. The company who were aware of his dislike to the subject, saw that the Duke was uneasy, and that he disliked the line of remark taken by his obsequious friend. To crown all, the distinguished stranger, upon the removal of the cloth, arose to propose the health of the Duke, in doing which he reviewed his public

THE STANDARD.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 24, 1852.

THE LEGISLATURE.

For the last few days the General Assembly has been somewhat warmly engaged on the Free Suffrage bill and the Senatorial election. On Friday the Free Suffrage bill passed the House by four votes beyond the Constitutional majority; and the bill was made the special order (on its third reading,) in that House for Tuesday (yesterday) twelve o'clock.

On Saturday and Monday the two Houses voted, as will be seen, for a Senator in Congress to fill Mr. Mangum's place for six years from and after the 4th of March next. The Democrats generally united on the Hon. James C. Dobbin, and the Whigs scattered upon James B. Shepard, Esq. Gen. R. M. Saunders, Hon. K. Rayner, Hon. W. A. Graham, and others. Mr. Mangum—the great Scott leader—got just one vote! "Oh what a fall was there, my countrymen!"

No one can regret more than we do the condition of things now existing at the Capitol. The Democrats have a clear majority on joint ballot, and are therefore entitled to the Senator. An overwhelming majority of the party have thought proper, under the circumstances, to unite on the Hon. James C. Dobbin for that office—a gentleman who would represent the State with ability and dignity, and whose election would give general satisfaction to the people of the State. It is natural that members should have their preferences, and should express those preferences by their votes; but union on an occasion like this is indispensable, in all probability, to success; and it is to be hoped that those who have heretofore declined to vote for Mr. Dobbin, will now, after having expressed their personal preferences, come forward and sustain that gentleman and thus ensure his election.

That party men are bound by party regulations and party organization, is a proposition which, at this day, will not be denied. If one may excuse himself, and refuse to sustain the person who has been designated as the choice of a majority of all, another, another, and another may pursue the same course, and the result must be confusion, sectional jealousies, disorganization, and ultimate defeat. As a Democrat, and so far as qualifications for the office are concerned, Mr. Dobbin is entirely unobjectionable; and we must repeat our regret that he has not thus far been sustained by the entire party in the two Houses.

We presume the two Houses will continue to vote until a choice is made. This appears to be regarded as the best course, inasmuch as the excitement attendant upon an election of this sort is calculated to prevent, for the time being, that deliberate and fixed attention which ought to be given to the public business.

☞ The Rev. William J. Langdon, Agent of the "Seamen's Friend's Society of Wilmington, is at present in this City receiving contributions to erect a Mariner's Church in that place. The commerce of Wilmington, already large, is destined to a steady increase; and the intercourse between that port and the ports of other countries, brings to her wharves and among her people thousands of seamen annually. Every other seaport of importance in the United States has a Mariner's Church; and the efforts thus made by the Christian denominations and the benevolent generally, have had a marked effect upon the habits and character of this class of men.

This movement is not denominational, as may be seen by the bill introduced into the Commons by Mr. Strange, to incorporate the Society, and as may be well understood from its nature and the character of those engaged in it.

This is the first appeal of the sort ever made to the North Carolina public in behalf of the honest-hearted, impulsive, and erratic sailor; and we hope it will meet elsewhere, as here, with a liberal response.

We are gratified to learn, from the Agent, that he has thus far been liberally encouraged. The Governor of the State, many members of the Legislature, and prominent citizens have contributed; and he indulges the hope that during the remainder of his stay here, he will add many more names to his list.

We are requested to say to those who may not have an opportunity to contribute now, that they can forward subscriptions to the Agent or the Treasurer of the "Seaman's Friend's Society," Wilmington.

MACON COUNTY.

In our table of the official vote of the recent election for President and Vice President in this State, the democratic loss in Macon county was stated at 88. It should have been 50. Kerr's majority in August was 19, and Scott's 69, leaving the gain for Scott 50. Our mistake occurred by adding the two majorities instead of substracting one from the other. The correction is due to the sterling democracy of Macon county, and we take pleasure in setting them right.

PRESENT FOR GEN. PIERCE. The Boston Post learns that a number of the patriotic citizens of Boston and vicinity are getting up a complimentary testimonial of their personal esteem for the President elect, in the shape of a model carriage, together with horses and equipage complete, all of New England production, for the occasion of his inauguration in March next.

☞ After the 4th of March next, the United States Senate will consist of 42 Democrats, 18 Whigs, and 2 Freesoilers. The Democrats will have more than two-thirds of that body.

FREE SUFFRAGE.

The majority Report of the Commons Committee, to which we called attention in our last, is not directly against Free Suffrage, but in favor of a Convention if the "organic law" is to be amended at all, and against "innovation," &c. &c. In other words, this document is a rehash of the old Whig doctrine on the subject for several years past. It admits that the legislative mode of amending the Constitution is strictly Constitutional, but at the same time contends that the Convention mode is "most strictly in accordance with the ancient republican landmarks." It expresses fears that the people will do themselves and their Constitution serious injury, if they persist in demanding their rights in a certain way, though that way is expressly sanctioned in the Constitution itself, and though the General Assembly, which is looked to to perfect the present amendment and submit it to the people, is appealed to in the same breath which gives utterance to these fears, to devise "some more speedy and satisfactory plan" for settling various questions of reform. It is wrong, it is dangerous, is the argument of the Committee, for the Legislature to pass the Free Suffrage bill by a three-fifths and a two-thirds vote, and submit it to the people; and it is thus wrong and dangerous for that body to pursue this course, for the reason that the Legislature ought not to "tinker with the Constitution," and commit the people to a mode of amendment, "which the history of the two past Legislatures demonstrates to be both expensive and precarious"; and yet it is right for this very Legislature, thus forbidden even to touch the Constitution, to authorize a Convention—a free Convention, in which this Constitution may be thoroughly and radically changed!

The above is a specimen of the arguments and positions of this document.

We shall not go at length into an examination of this document, nor reply to it point by point, for the plain reason that we perceive no particular necessity for so doing. We apprehend that no one, who reads for himself and thinks for himself, will be misled by it; and besides, we prefer to defend and urge the great measure of Free Suffrage in our own way. We do not choose to be diverted from leading and material points by the special pleadings or evasions of the opposition; and we shall, therefore, notice these special pleadings and evasions only when we believe that good will come of it to the cause we have in hand.

It is idle, after what has taken place, to contend that the people of this State desire a Convention. They have, time and again, in the most emphatic manner, declared against a Convention for any purpose whatsoever; and it is not likely that any thing will soon occur to induce them to change their opinions or their will in this respect. The members who have submitted this majority Report are, or ought to be, aware of this fact; and being thus aware of it, the only reasonable inference from their course is, that they are opposed to any and all amendments of the Constitution, and, as a consequence, opposed to Free Suffrage.

But, suppose a Convention—a free Convention should be called—what security would Mr. Perry have that the basis of representation would not be changed? And yet he represents, in part, the largest slaveholding and nearly the largest tax-paying County in the State! Is he quite certain that the non-landholders of Granville—aye, the non-landholders, for he represents them as well as the landholders—are so bitterly opposed to Free-Suffrage that, rather than have it now, they are willing to run the chances of a Convention? Is he, indeed, certain that a majority of the landholders are of his way of thinking?

The Free Suffrage bill has already passed one Legislature by the necessary three-fifths vote; and all that is required now is that it shall be sanctioned by two-thirds of the present Assembly, and submitted to the people for their approval at the ballot-box. If the masses are to have this privilege at all, why not give it to them now? Why undo all that has been heretofore done, and resort to the "expensive and precarious" mode of a Convention? Must the Free Suffrage crop, already in a fine condition and doing well in every respect, be ploughed up and a new one planted merely because it was not put in according to a particular plan? Are the people to be told, when they demand an unquestionable right, that they shall not have it because they did not call for it in a certain way? Away with these flimsy objections!—away with this pretended regard for popular rights!—away with this love for the people, which assumes that they are enemies to their own Constitution, and incapable of taking care of and governing themselves!

This important measure will, we think, most certainly pass the Commons, and we have strong hopes of its success in the Senate: still it may be defeated in the latter body. But its defeat will be only temporary. It will prevail—it will force its way, over all opposition, into the very heart of the State Constitution. So far as we are concerned, we shall stand by it, and that to the end. If stricken down now, we shall be among the first to rally its friends, to raise its flag, and to make preparations for still further struggles in its behalf.

More hereafter.

☞ The last Petersburg Democrat says: "It is stated that the Hon. James C. Dobbin has received the caucus nomination of the democratic members of the North Carolina Legislature, for U. S. Senator, in the place of Mr. Mangum, whose term of office will expire on the 4th March next. We sincerely hope that Mr. Dobbin may be elected. He has a great and well merited reputation for endowments of the first order, and will make a brilliant and efficient member of the Senate."

☞ Franklin Pierce is the youngest man who has ever been elected President of the United States. He is 48 years of age. Washington, John Adams, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, John Q. Adams and Van Buren, were each 58; Jackson 62; Harrison 68; Taylor 69; and Polk 50.

POSITIONS OF PARTIES.

There are certain diseases that to the superficial observer, present no outward manifestations of their ravages. The skillful physician can alone detect their existence. To others they reveal themselves only in the extinction of life—the deceptive hue of health suddenly giving way to the palor of death.

Such was the nature of the disease which has terminated the existence of the Whig party. While the skillful eyes of such men as Clay and Webster and others perceived the seeds of dissolution germinating in its bosom, to the common observer it presented the appearance of health and vigor—the cause of its downfall being revealed only in the effect.

In the first place it never was a party with which the heart of the masses beat in unison. Its principles (when it had any) were not those calculated to elevate the condition of the people; not those of that warmth and sympathy which enlist the affections and appeal to the honest pride of the toiling millions. It never gained power except by throwing its principles in the background and resorting to ad captandum arguments and deceptive pageants. Its principles were cold, aristocratic and repulsive; and their partial concealment was necessary to the success of the party. In 1840 they rode into the ascendency on log cabins filled with hard cider and decorated with coon skins, gourds, strings of red pepper and young 'possums. In 1848 they triumphed by hiding behind the military glory of Gen. Taylor, dazzling the eye and smothering the judgment with the splendor of his recent achievements at the head of our armies in Mexico. Thus was the nation twice deluded; but—thanks to its wisdom bought by dear experience—a third attempt to play the same game has resulted in utter defeat, the completeness of which is only equalled by that of the triumph of democratic principles.

The Whig party has for several years presented the curious anomaly of a party without principles, that is, without any marked distinctive features. The principles on which it first formed long since became obsolete and were abandoned; and it has been held together mainly by the force of former association, its leaders endeavoring to rally it to their support as men, and not as the embodiment of principles. In its downfall they saw the death of their hopes of political preferment, and knowing the force of association they appealed to it, making the name of Whig answer the place of principles. This has proved potent in holding together the old members of that party, but it has received but few accessions from the ranks of young men who grow up and become voters. These naturally look to principles, uninfluenced by the restraints of association, and failing to find them in the Whig party—failing to find any thing there in unison with the warm and generous impulses of youth, they have just as naturally fallen into the democratic ranks.

The dissolution of the Whig party has been suddenly manifested, but the causes of that dissolution have been silently progressing for years, and the present effect is but the inevitable consequence of those causes. Its opposition to the war with Mexico, by which that war was greatly prolonged and thousands of lives sacrificed, has left a stain of blood and a stigma of disgrace upon its memory, that time can never obliterate. Its more recent pusillanimous truckling to Spanish arrogance has left a blotch upon our national flag; and Whig prophets, conscious of having plunged the country into a depth of humility from which the stout heart of Democracy will rescue it, are now prophesying war as the consequence of Gen. Pierce's election. War may follow during the incoming Democratic administration, but if it does it will only be the consequence of the pusillanimity of the outgoing Whig administration. We do not believe a war will ensue; for Spain, knowing that the voice of the American people will speak through their Chief Magistrate after the 4th of next March, and that that voice will be in calm, determined tones, will desist from her arrogance and behave herself without chastisement.

The triumph of the Democratic party has been eminently a triumph of principle—a triumph of nationalism over sectionalism—a triumph of the honest masses over corrupt leaders. The prestige of military glory has not been able to overcome the sound conservative views and feelings of our people; and in the ascendency of those views and feelings, so signally manifested, the honor, glory and grandeur of our country are secured, and the foundations of our Republic strengthened.

THE RECENT SLAVE CASE IN NEW YORK. A man named Lemon, residing in Virginia, intending moving to Texas, and to this end, shipped himself and wife, and some eight negroes, on board the "City of Richmond" steamer, bound for New York, with the view of taking water thence to New Orleans, having no wish to bring his slaves into the State of New York, or in any way place them under the jurisdiction of its laws, but simply to transfer them from one vessel to another, on their way from one slave State to another.

Presently the Abolitionists heard of it, and a writ of habeas corpus was sued out in the name of a free negro, calling himself Louis Napoleon, and the slaves brought up before Judge Payne, of the Superior Court, who discharged them; their master—Mr. Lemon—thus losing his property, which, it seems, was about all he possessed.

The Judge put his decision upon the ground, that the Statutes of New York expressly forbid any slave to be brought into the State, and declare any so brought to be free—the transit laws having been abolished in 1841, and that, therefore, he had no discretion in the matter. It was argued on behalf of the counsel for the owners, that under the laws of nations, to say nothing of the comity existing between confederated States, a citizen of a friendly State has a right to a free transit with his property, through another friendly State. The Judge held that this principle did not apply to slaves, which are not property by the laws of nations, but only by the force of local municipal law.

However this decision may be in accordance with the Statutes of New York, it cannot fail to irritate the Southern people. The trade of New York has been built up by the commerce of the slave-holding States, and when a citizen of one of those States attempts to make use of the shipping facilities of New York for the transportation of his property from one slave State to another, he is rudely and unhospitably deprived of his property. If this be the spirit of New York jurisprudence and legislation, we would not give much for her professions of liberality and justice.

GREAT SPEED. In collecting the election returns, in Massachusetts, at the late State election, a locomotive, on the Connecticut River Railroad, ran 50 miles in 53 minutes, making six stops on the way. On the Western Massachusetts, road, a locomotive ran 54 miles in an hour and a half, including one stop for wood and water.

RALEIGH AND GASTON ROAD.

The Report of W. W. Vass, Esq., President of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road while in charge of the State, communicated to the present Assembly, is before us. This document is brief, but creditable to the President, and to those who, under his direction, contributed for so many months to keep this work in operation on so slender a foundation and with such small means.

We regret that we lack space to present the Report entire, but we make room for the following extract in relation to the purchase of a certain quantity of iron for the Road under a Resolution of the last Assembly:

"For reasons above given, the Road, with the strictest economy, and the most indefatigable exertions on the part of all concerned, has not been able to maintain itself, defraying its current and necessary expenses, and realize a sufficient surplus to pay for the iron purchased in February, 1851. Indeed, it could not have been done by anything short of a miracle. The history of the purchase alluded to is known to your Board. In my report of November 29, 1850, and which was submitted to the Legislature then in session, the fact was stated that the Road would have to stop operations at once, unless some 2 or 3 hundred tons of light iron could be immediately procured and laid upon the tract. To prevent the alternative indicated, and, with the laudable view of keeping up the road as long as the convenience and necessities of the public seemed to demand, the Legislature, on the eve of its final adjournment, passed a Resolution authorising your Board to make the necessary purchase of iron, if it could be made by pledging the proceeds of the road for the payment. Your Board authorised me to make the negotiation; and, with an official copy of the said resolution, I repaired to the extensive Iron establishment in Richmond owned by Mr. John R. Anderson. The Resolution of the Assembly, a copy of which is appended, was exhibited by me as the only basis on which I was authorised to negotiate; and, as our Road had been dealing regularly, for several years past, with the house of Mr. Anderson, justly distinguished for its high character and enterprise, that gentleman did not hesitate to enter into a written contract to furnish iron on the terms proposed, and at a price below that which we had paid six months previous.

It has so happened, that the receipts of the road, as before indicated, have not been sufficient to meet its current, necessary expenses, and to pay for this iron, or any portion of it; and the whole debt, amounting, with interest, on the 1st May, 1851, to the sum of $12,711 75, is still due and unprovided for.

The whole of the iron purchased was laid on the track of the road, and since the transfer of the road to the new company, it has remained in their possession. It will not, I trust, be inappropriate in me, to express the hope that your Board will lay this matter before the Legislature of the State, to whose special attention it is commended by its own intrinsic importance; nor can it be out of place on this occasion, to offer my congratulations at the final triumph of the old Raleigh and Gaston Railroad over all its difficulties, and the confident belief, that the State will at once promptly adopt measures for the payment of this debt, contracted at the darkest hour of its history, and to save its very existence, due by the strictest principles of justice, and for which the State of North Carolina has received valuable consideration."

We are requested to state that in the printed Report, laid before the Assembly, in the 6th line of the 4th page the figures $26,608, ought to stand $266 08.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

"O, be joyful in the Lord all ye lands; serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with songs.

O, go your way into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto God, and speak good of His name."

In the days of yore, our pious forefathers, the boasted progenitors of the world-renowned Anglo-Saxon stock, set apart a day in the autumn of every year to return thanks to the Almighty for his protection, and the many blessings vouchsafed in the lapsed twelve months.

By the canons of the Church in early days, through Virginia, the Carolinas, and Maryland, the first Thursday of November was appointed "a holy and joyful feast of thanksgiving." This feast brought with it the hospitable table, the games, the jests, the practical jokes and the merriment of All-Hallow e'n, so dear to the memory of all Scotch and Yorkshire men of that date. All-Saints day is the first of November; but so great was the reverence of our teachers of Divinity of that day for the Sabbath, they made this feast a moveable feast in order that its frolics and festivities should fall in the middle of the week.

Perhaps another motive influenced them. All-Saints day or All-Hallow tide is a Roman feast, and while our fathers acknowledged the propriety of a feast of Thanksgiving, they were unwilling to perpetuate any part of Romish ceremonies, against which they had solemnly protested.

Thanksgiving day first became a feast appointed by civil authorities in Massachusetts, the first year after the landing of the Pilgrims. It was adopted and observed by the subsequent colonies of New England, and perpetuated by their governments to the present day; and, probably, will ever be while the Religion of Christ and the belief in a Supreme Being prevails in their land.

Probably with the view of avoiding still farther the Romish feast, the New England authorities fixed it on the last Thursday in November.

More recently this has become the civil feast of, we believe, all the States of our glorious Union. Most if not all the Legislatures have laws or resolutions, authorizing and requiring the Executive to issue Proclamation for that purpose.

The Proclamation of His Excellency, David S. Reid, appears in all the papers, appointing Thursday, the 25th of November, "to be observed as a day of solemn and public THANKSGIVING," and recommends "that the people of the State unite in giving thanks to Almighty God for past blessings, and supplicate the continuance of His goodness and mercy."

Time honored institution! What nation, what people ever had such cause for giving thanks as the people of the United States—the people of North Carolina? Blest have we been, supremely blest, in the abundance of our crops, and the health to enjoy that abundance. Blest in all our civil and religious privileges, and blest in the happy disposition to protect, perpetuate and enjoy those rights and privileges.

Ministers of the Gospel of every denomination, call your flocks together and teach them thankfulness and praise, and open their hearts to love and charity. "From hence cometh all Godliness."

Fathers of families, gather your children round your festive board. Let it be an annual reunion, a reunion of hearts—one to be cheerfully remembered in the toils and troubles of the ensuing year and of future years. Brothers and sisters, come together—meet on this as a festive, a joyful occasion. Renew and make perpetual early bonds of love and kindness. So shall estrangement never visit your hearthstone.

Let politicians drop the envenomed pen, and devote to God and our country a festive day of charity, love and peace.

The act of giving thanks, the feeling of gratitude naturally leads to cheerfulness and joy. Restrain it only by the limits of reasonable moderation.

That sternly pious old patriot of the revolution, Jonathan Trumbull, used to head his Proclamation with the words of the Psalmist we have placed at the head of this article. Let them be engraved on every heart, and love, joy, and happiness will reign throughout our land.

Goldsborough Republican and Patriot.

A PREDICTION. The Natchez Free Trader makes the following prediction, the truth or falsehood of which will be demonstrated in two months:

We predict that by the 1st of January, 1853, a revolution will be in the States of Zacatecas, Tamaulipas and Chihuahua, and all the Northern States of Mexico. The object will be to establish an independent confederated Republic, similar to the United States. It will be under the lead of Americans, though nominally under that of Mexicans. It will be successful, and will have a material bearing on the destiny of the South, of the United States, and of this continent.

For the Standard.

P. S. "Boots" was in his glory.—Register.

"GALES" was in his misery, seated on a small stool, in the third story of an adjacent building, without a light, watching the procession as it passed. No doubt he said—

"And has it come to this,
That the Democracy are "Jubilant"
With martial music, burning torches,
And transparencies, brightly illuminated,
With inscriptions, marked by truth!
It is even so! And I told 'em that
T'would never do, with Scott before,
And our own Graham in the rear,
To troi that Seward nag o'er this course!
"Oh! cruel fate! I am undid!"

And drawing from his jacket pocket, what once boasted a dry linen handkerchief his brow was relieved, for a moment. ROUNDABOUT.

Later from Havana—Further of the Crescent City Affair, &c.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17. The steamer Black Warrior has arrived from Havana, bringing dates to the 11th inst.

The difficulty regarding the Crescent City had been revived by some old Spaniards who worked upon the feelings and prejudices of the Captain General. They had persuaded him to declare that the understanding with Judge Conklin had reference to only one voyage of the Crescent City. A Spanish war steamer was cruising off Moro Castle, with positive instructions to prevent the Crescent City from entering the harbor at all hazards.

No further difficulty had occurred in regard to other American vessels. The American steamer Antelope, which put into Havana for coal and water without a bill of health, received every facility in obtaining supplies and sailed without molestation, although she had violated the quarantine regulations.

The Black Warrior last evening while off Barnegat light, came into collision with schr. Sarah Emma, from New York for Philadelphia, cutting her down to the waters' edge and otherwise damaging her. The schooner was abandoned at anchor in nine fathoms water and the crew taken on board the Steamer.

The Captain General was moving an army of 20,000 men from point to point, organizing them for immediate action. Four companies of infantry and one of lancers had been stationed at Cardenas.

The news of Pierce's election reached Havana on the 11th, by the steamer Isabel.

Dry sugars were scarce and inactive. Molasses was in little demand. Coffee dull.

Later from Havana—Probable Settlement of the Cuban Difficulty.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 18. The steamer Isabel, Capt. Rollins, has arrived, bringing Havana dates of the 15th instant. As she came out, she saw the Crescent City near the mouth of the harbor and also saw the Spanish war steamer bearing down towards her. It was supposed that the commander of the Spanish vessel had been instructed to inform Lieutenant Davenport that the Crescent City could enter in future without further trouble, as great uneasiness was felt at Havana on account of her non arrival when due, the report being current that her owners had given orders for her not to stop there in future.

The Captain General, it was said, was fearful of provoking hostilities with the United States by attempting to exclude her, and was disposed to interpose no further interference in the matter. It was not known what course would be pursued towards Purser Smith, but it was supposed at Havana that his disclaimer of being connected with fillibustering movements would be deemed sufficient. The prospect of an amicable settlement of the difficulty had given great satisfaction to the citizens of Havana.

Arrival of the Asia.

NEW YORK, Nov. 19. The steamer Asia has arrived, with Liverpool dates to the 6th inst.

Cotton was dull, with no change in prices. The sales for the three days preceding amounted to 22,000 bales.

Breadstuffs were active and firm. Baltimore and Philadelphia flour, 23s. 6d. a 24s. Wheat—white, 7s. o 7s. 3d.; red, 6s. a 6s. 8d. Yellow corn, 31s. a 32s.; white, 33s.

In Naval Stores there was great activity, with an upward tendency in prices.

The transactions in Government and State stocks were large, and there had been a slight improvement. Sales of Virginia bonds at 101.

Parliament met on the 4th November. Charles Lefevre was elected speaker.

Preparations for the Wellington funeral are continued on an extensive scale.

The French Senate met on the 4th. A proposition to refer the question of the Empire to the people, had been referred to a committee, and a report was soon expected.

Decision against the Liquor Law.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 18. The Judges of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire have decided that the Liquor Bill passed by the last legislature is unconstitutional.

Later from Texas—Full vote of Louisiana—a New Cuban Paper.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17. The steamship Louisiana has arrived here with Galveston dates to the 12th instant. The news generally is unimportant. Gov. Bell has called an extra session of the Legislature, to meet on the 10th of January.

Complete returns of Louisiana give Pierce and King 1454 majority.

Mr. Thrasher starts a weekly paper in this city next Sunday, calling it the "Beacon of Cuba."

WILMINGTON, November 20, 1852.

NAVAL STORES. The Turpentine market seems to be rather firmer, and the article is in good demand with light receipts. Sales yesterday of 725 barrels at $3 40 for soft, and $1 75 for hard, per 280 lbs. In Spirits Turpentine we note sales yesterday of some 200 barrels at 48 cents per gallon, and 300 barrels on private terms. Holders generally are asking higher figures, but most buyers seem unwilling to operate. Sales yesterday and this morning of 140 bbls. Tar at $2 10 per bbl.

HAY—Sale yesterday of 50 bales New York hay at $1 35 per 100 lbs.

TIMBER—Sale of two rafts at $7 per M.

NOVELTY WORKS,

WEST ST., RALEIGH, NORTH-CAROLINA,
SILAS BURNS, PROPRIETOR,
BUILDER OF Steam Engines & General Machinist.

THE above establishment has been in successful operation about one year, and has turned out some of the best STEAM ENGINES and SAW MILLS that have ever operated in this or any other State.

Orders are solicited for Steam Engines and Saw Mills, Mill Gearing and Machinery of every discription to be completed during the Summer and Fall. The improved condition of the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road will enable me to fill with dispatch and punctuality all orders after the 1st of July.

The following certificate will show the character of the work executed at the above Works:

AUBRY, Cumberland, May 15, 1852.

Mr. SILAS BURNS,

Dear Sir: Our Engine and Mills, made at your shops, have been at work nearly two months, and fully meet our expectations. The ENGINE, as to FINISH and STRENGTH, PERFORMANCE and DURABILITY, is inferior to none in the State of the same class made here or elsewhere. The MILLS run with a smoothness and speed truly astonishing. In ordinary sawing we cut in a common sized log, 1 foot in 3½ seconds or 16 feet per minute. We have run, however, through an 18 feet log in 32 seconds or at the rate of 33 feet per minute, by running to the top speed we fully believe we can cut 40 feet per minute. The only objection we have heard urged is, it takes two many hands to haul up logs and carry away lumber. Yours, &c.,

JONES & BARBEE.

THE Proprietress of this well known and profitable establishment, having realized a sufficient income to arrant her in resuming the quiet of a private life, offers to the public generally the opportunity of bidding r its advantages.

The citizens of the State are so well acquainted with the advantages of its position, that but few remarks are necessary to complete their information.

The Hotel itself possesses all the requirments of room and comfort, which its purchasers can desire.
